

A group of people are dancing in a studio. The central figure is a man with a beard, wearing a green and yellow patterned shirt and olive green pants, with his arms raised. To his left, a woman in a red shirt and a colorful skirt is dancing. Behind her, another woman in a purple shirt is visible. To the right of the central man, a woman in a red sleeveless top and green pants is dancing, and further right, a woman in a green shirt and dark pants is also dancing. The background is a plain, light-colored wall, and the floor is dark. The lighting is warm and focused on the dancers.
